"When Yindy Comes Home"

Written in Honor of the Aerial Triumph of CHARLES A. LINDBERGH.

June 6, 1927.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst,
New York American,
New York City, N.Y.

My dear Friend:-

This little ditty, written and composed for The New York American, is my contribution to the Welcome Home Reception of the REAL YANKEE DOODLE DANDY, CHARLES A LINDBERGH.

Sincerely,

George M. Cohan

GEORGE M. COHAN.

CHARLES A. LINDBERGH.

WRITTEN BY GEORGE M. COHAN, AUTHOR OF "OVER THERE", "YANKEE DOODLE DANDY" etc
AND DEDICATED TO THE AMERICAN PUBLIC EXCLUSIVELY THROUGH THE

CHARACTER QUALITY AMERICA FIRST ACCURACY ENTERPRISE

New York American

AN AMERICAN PAPER FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

AND ASSOCIATED HEARST NEWSPAPERS

CUT HERE IF DESIRED

When Lindy Comes Home

By GEORGE M. COHAN

Written and Composed
For the N.Y. AMERICAN

Marcia

ff sfffz

VOICE

He's a com-ing He's a com-ing; Hear the Crowds are teem-ing Eag - le screaming; Bed lam mp

drum-ming, Rum - tum - tum-ming; See those flags oh break-ing, Hist' - ry mak-ing, Yan - kee dood - les mf

boy how they fly— See those air planes up in the sky;— Oh!
sing-ing their song— Hear that shriek-ing, wor-ship-ing throng— All!

Copyright, 1927, by New York American, Inc.

CUT HERE IF DESIRED

hear them hum-ming, Hear them hum-ming Lin-dy's coming Lindy's coming home.
wild and will-ing Gee it's thrill-ing Lin-dy's coming Lindy's coming home.

up

CHORUS

Oh say what a day when Lin-dy comes home,— When Lin-dy comes home
Oh say what a day when Lin-dy comes home,— When Lin-dy comes home

mp-f

— to his moth er Say what a day, From the
— to his moth er Say what a day, What a earth to the dome,— Like the an-cients of Rome— we shall wel-come him home;— Oh!

Hip! Hip! Hoo-ray,— We'll put Eu-rope a - way— with the hon-ors we'll pay— The wait and see A - mer - i - ca rise, With One, Two, can - nons roar You'll hear in the air, A thous - and

Three, Four, Fourth Of Ju - lys; Oh! say what a day From bands will play "O-ver There" Oh! say what a day For

Goth-am to Nome, When Lin-dy comes back From a-cross the foam, To his po - et and poem, When Lin-dy comes back From a-cross the foam, To his

1 2

Home, Sweet Home. Oh! Home.
Home, Sweet Home. Oh! Home.

f sffz

CUT HERE IF DESIRED